

to Utah but the family came on, joining an Aunt and Uncle in Utah living on the Weber River. Kezia obtained employment on a farm where Henry Cluff was laboring. He wooed and won her and they were married on 9 November 1865 in Provo, being sealed later in the Endowment House. Soon after their marriage the young wife was left alone while Henry went to fight in the Black Hawk War. She was not used to the wilds of western America and suffered many hardships. She learned to depend on the Lord to help her through the trying times. She raised a family of 11 children 5 girls and 6 boys. She died at the age of 71 on 16 Jan. 1915 in Provo, they having moved there a few years before her death.

Henry's and Kezia's children were as follows:

1. Ada Leonora born 6 Aug. 1866 at Provo, and was married to George F. Moulton 27 Sept. 1883. She died in 1947.
2. Lilley May born 25 May 1868 in Provo. She was married to George R. Hardman 12 Oct. 1887. She died 19 Oct. 1950.

HENRY RUSSELL AND LaVINA McDONALD CLUFF

Henry Russell Cluff was born Dec. 3, 1869, in Provo, Utah. He was the son of Henry and Kezia Russell Cluff. He was reared on the Cluff ranch in Elkhorn now known as Keetley. He married Fanny Lavina McDonald Oct. 2, 1892. They lived and reared their family of nine children in Heber City. Seven children are now living. Mabel died as a baby. Others are Bert Fillmore, Mrs. V. K. Howe (Della), Merlin, Salt Lake City; Russell, San Leandro, California; Charles Lessie, Heber; Lilly Provost, Midway; Afton Dillon, Long Beach, Calif. They have 26 grandchildren and 33 great-grandchildren.

Henry worked at the Ontario Drain Tunnel for years, putting the first tunnel through. He worked for the government for 27 years. In that time he made some very interesting observations on the range. One was how thousands of prairie chickens migrated one fall and never returned. He worked in the trapping of animals until he was 75 years of age.

While out in the mountains camping, many tourists often mistook him for "rough riding" Teddy Roosevelt. He was once asked to go to Hollywood to make a production of Teddy.

Fanny Lavina McDonald Cluff was born Sept. 7, 1875, in Heber City, the 15th child of William and Sariah Shurtz McDonald. LaVina or "Aunt Vine" by which she was better known, was very talented. She was never schooled for these talents. It was God's gift to her. From the time she was a child she made many beautiful things.

Anything she saw she could sit down and make it—flowers, doilies, paintings, jewelry. Each day she would sit for hours making something. Her hands were never idle. She always had her work displayed at the county fairs. She won many ribbons. Her home was an inspiration to visit. Many friends came just to see her home.

Flowers in bloom were her pride. Many slips of her flowers were given to people, also doilies are in the homes of her friends and her children. At the time of her death she had 187 doilies and 49 pairs of hot pads.

She was always sweet and kind. Relatives and friends loved to visit her. Many a Sunday she cooked dinners for as many as 25 or 30 people. She and Henry were married 66 years. They were very seldom separated for any length of time. Even in death there was only 15 days. LaVina passed away June 3, 1958, and Henry died June 18, 1958, the end of a wonderful life together.

EDWARD D. CLYDE AND CLARA ALEXANDER CLYDE

Edward D. Clyde was born Sept. 19, 1864, at Heber, Utah, a son of George Washington and Jane McDonald Clyde who were among the first settlers of Wasatch County.

His life was spent in Wasatch, except about five years spent in the Irish and Eastern states mission, in Ireland 1885-1887 and in the east from 1901-1903, both were very successful.

He married Clara P. Alexander in the Logan Temple Nov. 20, 1889. To this union were born six children, Edward D. Jr., Lynden, L. Dean, Ednal, Miles and Lily Clyde.

He served in many religious and civic positions. In his early years he taught school. As the years went by he supervised the building of the Heber Mercantile, which later burned, the Amusement Hall and the dams at the head of the Provo river, Trial, Wall, Lost and Washington Lakes. He served as mayor of Heber for a time, he was also a cattle and sheepman at the time of his death.

He served as a counselor to Bishop Robert Duke in the Heber First Ward and was second counselor to President Joseph R. Murdock of the Wasatch Stake at the time of his death, Aug. 28, 1917, at Heber.

Clara P. Alexander Clyde was born in Wanship, Summit County, May 10, 1867, a daughter of Henry S. and Sarah Miles Alexander, the family moved to Midway and later to Heber. Here she met and married Edward D. Clyde in the Logan Temple Nov. 20, 1889.

She was the mother of two girls and four boys. She was active in Church work, serving as president of both ward and stake MIA and Relief Society. During World War I she was in charge of the Red Cross here and much was done for them and clothing made to be sent to the Belgians. She was a very capable seamstress. Before her marriage she operated a dressmaking, novelty and millinery shop and did much of this through her years.

She was a good wife and the best of mothers, she died at her home in Heber August 7, 1946.

Their children are Edward Delbert, Lynden, Lionel Dean, Ednal Eulila, Elmo Miles and Lily Clyde.

Mr. Clyde built a two-story home on Main Street (where the Hilton Motel now is) to take his bride. Two more rooms were added as the family grew, all were born and raised there.

GEORGE WASHINGTON AND JANE McDONALD CLYDE

George Washington Clyde, Jr., was born June 8, 1825 at Ogdensburg, St. Laurence County, New York, a son of George Wash-

dred. After living two years in Salt Lake City, the family settled on the Weber river and in 1889 Brother Hill moved to Springville, Utah county, where he has since resided. Farming, school teaching, rail roading and book-keeping have been his main occupations, and since 1903 he has had charge of the Bishop's store house in Springville. He has held several offices, among which that of commissioner of Utah county.

ANDERSEN, Anders Nielsen, an active Elder in the Timpanogus Ward, Utah Stake, Utah, was born Oct. 30, 1857, at Stenum, Hjørring amt, Denmark. He was baptized Feb. 10, 1880, becoming a convert to "Mormonism" when he heard the first Gospel sermon preached by Elder Andrew Jenson, the Historian. He served as a soldier in the Danish army about fourteen months and married Trine Nielsen Aug. 8, 1881. After bearing him three children, his wife died Sept. 16, 1887. He emigrated to Utah in 1888 with two of his children (one died before he emigrated) and married Louisa Julia Möller May 15, 1889. By this marriage he became the father of seven children. Elder Andersen was ordained a Teacher before emigrating from Denmark; was ordained an Elder May 4, 1889; acted as a Teacher in the Fourteenth Ward, Salt Lake City; removed to Parley's Park, Summit county, in 1893, where he acted as Ward teacher, superintendent of the Sunday school and president of Y. M. M. I. A. In 1896, (May 30th) he was ordained a High Priest and set apart as second counselor to Bishop George Page. After the death of Bishop Page, Elder Andersen acted as second counselor to Bishop Hans O. Young, which position he filled till he removed to Pleasant Grove, Utah county, in August, 1898. Soon afterwards he located on the Provo Bench (in the Timpanogus Ward), where he acted as second counselor to Bishop Ottis L. Terry until April 1906. He has acted as secretary for the branch organization of the High Priests Quorum of Timpanogus Ward since its organization (March 23, 1902), and has always been a diligent worker in the interest of the Church.

RITCHIE, John McAfee, Bishop of Charleston (Wasatch Stake of Zion), Utah, is the son of John Ritchie and Sarah McAfee, and was born Oct. 30, 1867, at Heber City, Wasatch county, Utah. He was baptized Aug. 14, 1876, by Emanuel Richmond; ordained a Teacher in 1885; ordained an Elder Oct. 31, 1891, by Nymphas C. Murdock; ordained a Seventy Jan. 29, 1893, by James Price, and ordained a High Priest Aug. 13, 1899, by Joseph F. Smith. In 1897-1899 he filled a mission to Australia, where he presided over the New South Wales conference and afterwards over the Queensland conference. At home he has acted as president of a Deacons quorum, president of Y. M. M. I. A., and first counselor to Bishop Nymphas C. Murdock. In 1904 (Nov. 7th) he was ordained a Bishop by Apostle George A. Smith and set apart to preside over the Charleston Ward. Bishop Ritchie is the husband of one wife and the father of five children. His principal occupations have been farming and school teaching, and he has served his fellow-citizens as justice of the peace, president of the town board and school trustee.

CLYDE, Edward D., second counselor in the presidency of the Wasatch Stake, Utah, was born Sept. 19, 1864, at Heber City, Wasatch county, Utah, the son of George Washington Clyde and Jane McDonald. His early life was spent on his father's farm, attending cattle, and he was educated in the common schools and in the B. Y. Academy at Provo. In 1885-1887 he filled a mission to Great Britain, laboring two years in Ireland and later six months in the London conference. In 1889 (Nov. 20th) he married Clara Prudence Alexander, and in 1897-1898 he labored as a mutual improvement missionary in Juab and Millard Stakes. In 1901-1903 he filled a mission to the Eastern States, where, after laboring in New York and Brooklyn about six months, he was placed in charge of the work in New England. His greatest success in missionary life was in open air speaking. He was a member of the High Council and an efficient worker in the auxiliary organizations in the Wasatch Stake for several years, and in 1903 (Aug. 9th) he was ordained a High Priest and set apart as first counselor to Bishop Robert Duke, of Heber First Ward, which position he held until Aug. 12, 1906, when he was set apart as second counselor to Jos. R. Murdock, president of the Wasatch Stake.
